

As of Tuesday, March 28, 2006
3:43 p.m.

The following bill signings have been placed on the Governor's schedule and I'd appreciate your help in developing details:

Monday, April 3, 10 a.m., Capitol Rotunda - Foster care/adoption tax credit; bills to be signed at press conference proclaiming April as Child Abuse Prevention Month. (Paul is coordinating with Col. Taylor on talking points.)

Tuesday, April 4, 2:30 p.m., Hinds County Sheriff's Office/Jail - Supreme Court appropriation, which includes money for additional prosecutor to fight crime in Jackson. (Daryl, would you please contact Sheriff MacMillan to see if this works for him and secure appropriate location. We definitely want him there, along with Chief Justice Jim Smith and Mayor Melton.)

Wednesday, April 5, 2 p.m., Capitol Rotunda - IHL/CC appropriations (Ideally, we definitely want to invite college and community college presidents, IHL and CC board members, and commissioners in a major demonstration of support for this increased funding. (Jason, would you please contact the appropriate education officials.)

Monday, April 17, 11 a.m., Indianola - Bonds for B.B. King Museum

Tuesday, April 18, 1 p.m. West Harrison County Civic Center, Pass Christian - Gulf Coast Regional Authority; in conjunction with GHB's remarks to rebuilding conference in Pass Christian (John R., would you please coordinate.)

Tuesday, April 25, Capitol, 2 p.m. – Ceremonial signing of “Castle Doctrine” (signed March 27) and HB 1141 (signed March 23) involving shooting inside city limits; both of NRA interest

Not yet scheduled:

- Fleet management
- National Guard income tax exemption (signed March 27)
